

Out of the Carpentry Shop

John 1:43

Epiphany II (18 Jan. '09)

INTRODUCTION: "That's an understatement!"

- I. Jesus decided to leave for Galilee...
  - A. What an understatement
  - B. This leads to who Jesus was and what he came to do
  - C. But what does this have to do with a carpentry shop?

- II. Jesus decided to leave for Galilee...
  - A. He didn't have to leave the carpentry shop
  - B. Imagine what went through His mind before He left
  - C. Finally the day came to journey toward the cross

- III. Jesus decided to leave for Galilee...
  - A. He could have refused to go, but His heart said go
  - B. He heard the voices crying out in need
  - C. He saw the faces... from Adam until today
  - D. He heard your voice and saw your face
  - E. He left because of you!

CONCLUSION: Oh how He loves you (What an understatement!)
