

Things Aren't Always What They Seem (Acts 2:1-21)

Pentecost Sunday

Introduction: The fly with the high IQ & Hollywood movies...

I. Things Aren't Always What They Seem

- A. This is true when it comes to Jesus
 - 1. He's not just gentle & kind
 - 2. He's also dangerous & a real threat
- B. This is true about His death by crucifixion
 - 1. It may seem like weakness, but –
 - 2. It is really the strength of God's eternal plan

II. Things Aren't Always What They Seem

- A. Jesus' disciples should have understood, but they didn't (Acts 1:6)
- B. They should have been bold witnesses, but at first they weren't
- C. The miracle of Pentecost seemed like no big deal to some (Acts 2:1-13)

III. The Day of Pentecost Is Even More Than It Seems

- A. The 1st Pentecost was the 'birthday of the Church' (Acts 2)
- B. It is a major celebration, though for many today it seems like no big deal
- C. Regardless of the 'bad press' the Church gets today –
- D. Things aren't not always as they seem!
- E. The same Pentecost Spirit does miraculous works today (Acts 2:17-21)

Conclusion: God's promises to you are exactly as they seem...you can count on it!
