Mark 13:33-37

Something is About to Happen (Mark 13:33-37)

INTRODUCTION: My bad habit (one of them! 😊)

I. SOMETHING IS ABOUT TO HAPPEN

- A. The early Church lived “on tiptoes” waiting for Jesus’ return (Mk. 13:33)
- B. We at times live on tiptoes anticipating the future

II. IS SOMETHING ABOUT TO HAPPEN?

- A. At times, in our lives we wonder...
- B. The early Church also wondered (Mk. 13:33; 35)
- C. People cannot “stand on tiptoes” forever...

III. SOMETHING HAS HAPPENED

- A. Jesus said – “at evening, at late night, at cockcrow, at dawn” and He was right as He pointed to the cross
- B. Everything uncertain in our lives is anchored in the certainty of the cross

IV. SOMETHING IS ABOUT TO HAPPEN

- A. Every moment is alive with the promise of God’s future & Jesus’ return (Jere. 29:11)
- B. In the Church, like nowhere else, we realize:
something is about to happen!

CONCLUSION: *The last prayer & last words in the Bible:
“Come, Lord Jesus, Come”*
