Opening Hymn: “Singing with the Exiles” (verses 1-8)

|---|---|
| 1 Fear not, Jacob, O you worm
For you God has such a word
Christ, the Saviour took your place
Baptized with His saving grace 2 “Precious, honoured this is true
My life in exchange for you
Given and shed to renew
I have eyes only for you.” 3 Marred, disfigured, stricken, mocked
Was despised, esteemed him not
We are too marked with the cross
What was gain is counted loss 4 God’s anointed breaks the gates
Now set free we celebrate
Buried with Christ we have died
That to life we may arise | 5 Get out, flee your life of sin
Christ, our conqueror comes to win
“I have swept your guilt away.
Salvation for you today.” 6 “My mouth is like a sharp sword.”
Just one word from Christ our Lord:
“Cleansed, forgiven, justified
Healed, restored for you I died.” 7 By His wounds You have been healed
Body, blood of Christ our shield
Look the Lamb who takes away
All our sin and guilt today 8 Stricken, smitten, afflicted
Cut off for those addicted
To their sin and crushed by death
Christ gave all e’en his last breath |

MISSION ACCOMPLISHED!

When Jesus suffered and died on the cross, His mission was accomplished. He came to take the penalty for our sins and fulfill God's plan of salvation for each one of us. When we believe that Christ gave it all and His death paid the penalty of all our sins, we are completely forgiven and fully restored into God's family, now and forever.

Join us in the next two days as we continue to tell and hear this message, and celebrate His victory and resurrection on Easter morning.
